

The Christian Broadcaster

WOCB, Wxcb, WGCT, WQIZ | August 2021

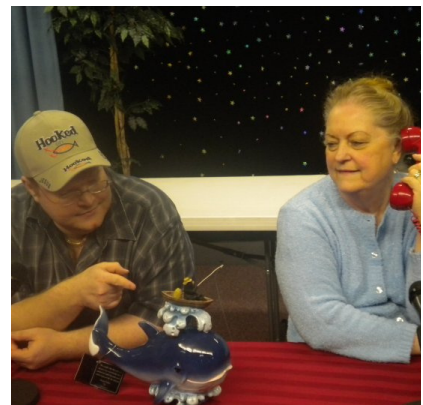

The National EAS test was success here at the COACB. Our station in Marion, Ohio received the signal and rebroadcasted it to all of our sister stations across Central Ohio. However, some television stations across the United States were not as lucky. I read about tons of issues around the nation of radio and television stations not being able to pick up the nationwide test or being able to broadcast it. Thankfully, we had no issues. So, rest assured that if there is danger around that we will be able to relay the message.

Lights, Camera, Shop on Hold

With Carolyn Aiken passing away last month the Aiken family decided to put a hiatus on the Lights, Camera, Shop show for a while. As the family takes time to heal and greave her passing, they wanted to take time to enjoy their children and other family members. Jonathan's daughter Chloe is in the Color Guard and Stephen's daughter

Kayleigh is a Cheerleader at RVHS.

Lights, Camera, Shop was always on Friday nights which limits the amount of time that they can go to support family members at functions like football games. As Jonathan said on Sunday, "When both of your parents and grandparents pass away, you reflect on what is really important in life. After Jesus, the most important of all is family."

How do you know you are Live?

Well, that's a good question. In every one of our studios we have a "live" television that broadcasts our channel 24 hours a day. When the broadcast computer switches to the studio you are recording in and you see yourself in the TV you are "live". You can see the one for Studio A attached to the ceiling in the picture below.

Mark Your Calendars

November will be here before you know it and our Fall Telethon and Auction is right around the corner. The auction will kick off on November 4th and this years will be one of the biggest yet. If you or your business have any new items, gift certificates, or handmade items that you would like to donate in support of the TV auction, please let us know. Just call (740) 383-1794.

Fixing the Sound

We have had some problems with our sound in Studio A for years. After a little bit of elbow grease and ingenuity, we have hammered out most of the issues. The quality of sound from Studio A is so much better! It is amazing. Come on by and watch one of our live gospel sings in person. You will be amazed.

Thank you letters

Above you will see some of the letters and thank you cards we have received in the mail over the years. We have officially had a television broadcast ministry since 1980. You will see old newspaper articles and pictures throughout the years on the walls of the lobby.

Repaving the Parking Lot

Our parking lot was looking pretty worn and rough in some areas, like the entrances. It has been several years since we had it redone. Finally, we have budgeted enough funds to get the blacktop repaved here at the Marion TV station. I want to thank everyone for their donations and prayers of support to get this project underway. Please, pray for safety for the Jones Blacktop team as they work on repaving our lot.

We would like to thank Jones Blacktop for paving our parking lot. In the picture they are painting the parking spaces.

Consider donating today

As you probably already thought Broadcasting on four television stations across central Ohio can be kind of pricey. I am proud to say that our operating budget for WOCB, WXCW, WGCT, and WQIZ is less than $15,000 per month. We have goals to expand our ministries even further than before. Would you please consider donating to the COACB today?

Filling other people's shoes

I have a new perspective on when someone is going through something rough like the death of a parent or a loved one. Try not to turn to them and say, "They have some mighty big shoes to fill." Have you ever tried to put on someone else's shoes on in real life? They can be clumpy, too tight, too big, and they just don't fit right. The reason why is they were made for and broken in by the original owner.

When someone says "You have some big shoes to fill." I now have an answer for them. All I can say is "My shoes fit me just fine, and that's ok. I prefer filling my own shoes the way God made them, and intended for them to fit me. I wear them every day faithfully." My shoes might not look like nor feel like someone else's, but that is what God intended when He made each one of us so distinct. Our shoes should be different, but everyone's walk should be the same (in Christ).
